7 Important Notes for Applicants

1. Application and Document Submission

① Foreign applicants must submit their documents through the university's International Student Recruitment Team.

· Chinese-speaking applicants: 041-540-9712

· English-speaking applicants: 041-540-9524

② After completing the online application, applicants must print the application form and submit it together with the original supporting documents required for their respective programs (master's, doctoral, integrated master's and doctoral, or combined bachelor's-master's programs). Applicants are responsible for any disadvantages resulting from failure to submit the required documents.

③ To ensure prompt notifications regarding admission results and other important information, applicants must accurately enter their mobile phone number, email address, and other contact information. Please ensure that you do not miss any announcements during the admission process.

④ Once the application has been completed, the application information cannot be modified, the application cannot be canceled, and the application fee cannot be refunded. The university is not responsible for any consequences resulting from errors made by applicants.

⑤ All documents must be submitted in their original form. If photocopies must be submitted because reissuance of the originals is impossible, the originals must also be presented for comparison. Copies will be accepted only after verification against the originals.

⑥ Active-duty military personnel may apply if they are scheduled to be discharged before February 2027. They must submit either a certificate of expected discharge or a certificate of leave issued by their unit commander.

⑦ Applicants who submit a certificate of expected graduation must submit the original graduation certificate by the end of February 2027. Failure to submit the certificate within this period will result in cancellation of admission.

2. Admission

① Information regarding admission results and announcements will be posted on the Graduate School website and communicated individually. Applicants must provide accurate contact information when applying.

② Applicants who fail the interview will be disqualified.

③ Admission evaluation criteria and scores will not be disclosed.

④ The university is not responsible for disadvantages resulting from errors in application information or incomplete supporting documents.

⑤ If false information is provided in the application or supporting documents, or other misconduct is discovered, admission may be revoked even after acceptance.
Legal basis: Article 34-2(4) of the Higher Education Act (Cancellation of Admission).

3. Application Fee Refunds (Reasons and amounts of refunds in accordance with Article 34(4) of the Higher Education Act)

① If an applicant withdraws from the admission process due to an error attributable to the applicant, the application fee will not be refunded.

② If an applicant is unable to participate in the admission process due to circumstances attributable to the university, the full application fee will be refunded.

③ If an applicant is unable to participate in the admission process due to a natural disaster, the full application fee will be refunded.

④ If an applicant is unable to participate in the admission process due to hospitalization or other unavoidable circumstances, including the applicant's death, the full application fee will be refunded if the circumstances are verified and approved by the university.

4. Registration of Successful Applicants

① Successful applicants must pay the admission fee and tuition within the designated registration period, in accordance with the university's instructions. Failure to pay within the specified period may result in cancellation of admission.

② If a successful applicant does not register at the university or requests a refund of the admission fee or other fees after registration, a written withdrawal statement must be submitted before the start of the semester. After the semester begins, refunds will be processed in accordance with the applicable regulations.

5. Other Information

① Applicants subject to the university's quota-based admission policy must complete the submission of the required consent form for the transfer of academic records from the Ministry of Education to the Ministry of Education and Human Resources Development before admission.
