05 Other Matters

How to apply

- You may submit the originals by mail or submit PDF files by email. If you apply by email, you must submit the originals by the time you enter Korea. If the PDF files submitted by email differ from the originals, admission may be revoked.

Review period

- Document review takes about 1 to 2 weeks. If documents are incomplete, we may ask you to supplement them; if there are no problems, we will notify you of the interview date and time.
- Results will be announced within 1 week after the interview, and successful applicants will also be sent a tuition invoice
- The Certificate of Admission can be received by email within 2 to 3 days after tuition is paid.
- If you are not contacted within the expected period, please reach out to the contact office.

Visa Information

- Students who have received the Certificate of Admission must apply for a General Training (D-4-1) visa at the Korean diplomatic mission in their place of residence. Required documents (Certificate of Admission, letter of guarantee, proof of tuition funding, etc.) differ by country, so please check in advance.
- Visa processing time varies by country but takes at least 1 month, so we recommend starting the process no later than 2 months before the start of the term. The D-4-1 visa is usually valid for 6 months, and after arrival we will guide you on extending it at the Korean immigration office.

Arrival Information (Airport Pick-up)

- Successful applicants will be informed by email of the Incheon Airport T1/T2 pick-up schedule and a URL for uploading their flight ticket. Please check it carefully and refer to it when booking your flight. The airport pick-up service is usually held 1 week before the start of classes.
- Students who will travel on their own must also tell us their arrival schedule and travel plans.

- Students arriving outside the pick-up schedule may also be able to get a pick-up depending on the number of people, so please inquire.

What to do after arrival

- Arriving students must visit the International Cooperation Team (Kangseokgyu Education Hall, Room 101).
- We will guide you on the Korean Language Center class schedule, class placement, Alien Registration Card application, opening a bank account, dormitory, etc.
- When visiting the International Cooperation Team, please bring your passport, photos, residence contract, etc.
- For smooth communication and to check announcements, we will guide you to sign up for social media such as KakaoTalk or WeChat.
- For further details, visit the International Cooperation Team

Dormitory Information

- For a comfortable and safe study-abroad life, you can move into the dormitory at a low cost. Through dormitory life you can interact with students from many countries, learn about their cultures, and grow socially.
- Students who wish to live in the dormitory after receiving notice of acceptance must let us know.
- Dormitory costs (based on 2026 Semester 2; subject to change):

Type	Amount		Remarks
4 Sharing	1,020,000 KRW		- Based on one university semester (15 weeks). Additional fees apply for the Korean Language Center's 20-week program
2 Sharing	A type	1,621,000 KRW	- Breakfast and dinner provided. No dinner on Fridays or meals on public holidays.
	B type	1,379,000 KRW	- Dormitory rules must be followed - Type B: Two students occupy a four-person room

Insurance Information

- All Korean language program students are required to enroll in the university-designated group insurance plan upon arrival in Korea.
The insurance premium is approximately KRW 70,000–110,000 per year, depending on the student's age.
- Six months after entering Korea, students are automatically enrolled in the National Health Insurance, under the same system as Korean nationals.
The insurance premium is approximately KRW 70,000–80,000 per month, depending on the student's age.

Cancellation of registration

- If you cancel your registration before the term begins, or cannot enter Korea (for example, because your visa is denied), the full tuition is refunded except for the admission processing fee (100,000 KRW).
- If you withdraw after arriving and after classes have started, the refund follows the Korean Language Center's tuition refund policy:
 - Before one-third of the term has passed: an amount equal to two-thirds of the tuition
 - After one-third and before one-half of the term: an amount equal to one-half of the tuition
 - After one-half of the term: no refund.
- To cancel your registration, please make the request to the contact office.
